

N. RAMANTHAN, M.L, FCS, CWA

Assistant Professor

N. Ramanathan, Assistant Professor, has completed his B.L. Degree from Dr. Ambedkar Government Law College (Madras Law College) in 1988 and completed his Masters in Law (International Law & Constitutional Law) from University of Madras in 1990. He has also completed the Cost and Management Accountancy course in 1991 from the Institute of Cost and Management Accountants of India and Fellow Member of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India.

He started his professional career as Advocate and practiced Law in Civil, Criminal and Writ matters for five years from 1988 to 1993. Thereafter, he was selected by the Union Public Service Commission and Joined the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Government of India, in the year 1994. He served Indian Corporate Law Service for 23 years holding different statutory positions as Company Prosecutor, Registrar of Companies, Official Liquidator and Inspecting Officer carrying out statutory functions of registration of companies, monitoring and prosecution of companies and winding up of companies under the Companies Act, 1956 & 2013. He has also independently appeared and represented the field offices of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs before the Hon'ble High Courts at Chennai, Hyderabad and Calcutta. He has resumed his law practice as Advocate since 2017.

During the years 2018 & 2019, he has been Associate Professor in Saveetha School of Law teaching Law of Taxation, Corporate Laws, Competition Law and Criminal Procedure Code.

In 2020, he has joined as Assistant Professor in Bharath Institute of Law, BIHER and teaching Law of Contracts, Company Law, Securities & Regulatory Laws, Law of Taxation, Forensic Science and Alternative Dispute Resolution