

MRS.AZIMATHUL MARSHIYA M - ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

Mrs. Azimathul Marshiya M. is a standout in labor and administrative law with a strong educational background. She completed her B.Sc. in Computer Science at JBAS College for Women, followed by an M.Sc. in Computer Science from Anna University. She earned her LL.B. and LL.M. degrees from Dr. Ambedkar Government Law College, Pattaraiperumbudur. Mrs. Marshiya has an impressive academic record, having been named best student in school, securing 1st rank in SSLC, and graduating with distinction and a gold medal in her bachelor's degree.

She has actively participated in national and international moot court competitions, winning awards such as Best Female Counsel in the All India Moot Court Competition. Additionally, she served as an event organizer and presenter at her college, presented papers at various law colleges, and participated in webinars. She also has experience as a vice principal at a school. Mrs. Marshiya has contributed to the field through various publications and presentations.