

MRS. BLESSY PRIYANIRANJANA - ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

She is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) at BIHER, focusing on advancing her expertise in the legal domain of intellectual property. From 2014 to 2015, she worked as a Legal Officer at SBI Cards, where she gained valuable experience in the banking and financial services sector, handling legal matters related to credit cards and financial transactions. Afterward, she worked at a legal firm from 2015 to 2022, where she further developed her legal skills, working on a variety of cases and providing legal counsel to clients in different sectors.

Now, she serves as an Assistant Professor at BIHER, where she combines her extensive legal experience with her passion for teaching, mentoring students, and contributing to the academic community. Her diverse background in both practical legal work and academia enriches her teaching approach, allowing her to offer real-world insights into the study of law.
