

MRS. V. NALINI DEVI - SENIOR ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF LAW

Ms. Nalini Devi is an experienced advocate with more than ten years of legal practice. She is also a Senior Faculty member who has been mentoring and guiding over 8 batches of students throughout her teaching career. In addition to her teaching role, she has been actively involved in organizing various seminars and field visits for students, helping them gain practical exposure to the legal field.

Ms. Nalini Devi has taught a wide range of subjects, including Medical and Health Law, Torts, Disaster Management Law, Professional Ethics, and Legal Research Methodology, sharing her in-depth knowledge and expertise with students. Her contributions to both the academic and practical aspects of law have been invaluable in shaping the next generation of legal professionals.