

DR.M. RAJALAKSHMI - ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

"She has an extensive academic background in English Literature, beginning with a Bachelor of Arts (B.A) in English Literature, which she completed in 1993 from the University of Madras. She further advanced her expertise in the field by pursuing and completing a Master of Arts (M.A) in English Literature from the same prestigious university.

To enhance her teaching skills and specialize in English language training, she completed a Postgraduate Diploma in English Language Teaching (PGDELT) from Annamalai University. She continued to deepen her academic qualifications by earning an M.Phil from Vinayaga Mission Institution, focusing on advanced literary studies.

Her academic journey culminated in a Ph.D. in American Literature from Bharathiyar University, marking her as an expert in this specialized area of study. Additionally, she has demonstrated her proficiency and competence in English Literature by successfully qualifying for the State Eligibility Test (SET) in 2011, a mandatory qualification for teaching at the university level in India."
