

MRS. C. SUGUNA-ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

Mrs. Suguna has been a dedicated educator and a respected leader in various roles. She holds a master's degree (M.A.), a Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.), and an M.Phil., along with additional qualifications such as a Postgraduate Diploma in Computer Management (P.G.D.C.M.) and a Diploma in Personnel and Counseling Skills (DPCS). Her commitment to academic and personal development has been recognized with the Best Teacher Award.

As an NSS Officer, she has guided students in community service, fostering a sense of social responsibility. In her role as a Cultural Coordinator, Mrs. Suguna has effectively organized and promoted cultural activities, encouraging students' creativity and engagement. She also serves as a Women Development Coordinator, advocating for women's empowerment and supporting gender equality initiatives. As a mentor, Mrs. Suguna provides valuable guidance to students, helping them achieve their full potential. Her dedication to holistic education and leadership makes her an inspiring figure in the academic community.